The Tillery cemetery at Dante was vandalized and about 1985 six descendants of the Bell, Tillery and Furgeson families moved the remains of what had been at one time (23) twenty three markers. The markers were organized by family names as well as possible and placed in vertical walls in the Bookwalter United Methodist Church Cemetery in Knoxville TN. A stone by the DAR chapter recognizing John Tillery as an American Revolutionary soldier was placed there and a bronze plack explained the move giving the location for the actual burials undisturbed. Their names and the family participants names were given. This affair was dedicated by a color guard and by the DAR with family members attending.

Marriage Notes for THOMAS BELL and MARINDA RUCKER:

[Clarence Eugene Bell Ancestors.FBK.FBC.FBK.FBK.FBC.FBK.FTW]

Marinda had four children with Thomas and had trouble nursing so my granddad James Henry only survived because a former slave woman took him to nurse. James sister Phebe Monterrey also survived but the other two probably did not because of Marinda's malady.
